A treasurer's report was given. All current bills have all been paid. Some annual memberships have not been collected. Currently the GPTLA bank account sits with $2098.34 in it. An email was sent reminding members of overdue membership, to please renew. The treasurer's report was approved by all.

A discussion was held about the time and place for a members' meeting during the Black Hills Stock Show. After some deliberation, this topic was tabled until the next board meeting.

A discussion was held on the topic of the GPTLA taking over a booth currently held by the Howie's, the Sanders's, and the Lippert's. It was decided to put this topic to the membership. An email will be sent to the membership regarding this topic.

A discussion was held on fundraising for the GPTLA. This was tied in with discussions of the GPTLA World Qualifying Show and the funding of the potential booth at Black Hills Stock Show. This was tabled for a later meeting.

A discussion was held on the GPTLA website Sale Pen usage fees. I was decided to change the usage fee from "$150.00 per year for 3 spots with unlimited changes" to "$25.00 per spot." All board members approved the change.

Shawn brought up the list of members nominated for the upcoming GPTLA Board of Directors election. There was only one nomination, and that was for Asa Steiner. Gordon motioned to approve the nomination, Lisa seconded the motion, and all approved. With no other nominations being made, no election will be needed. Lisa will fulfill her term through 12/31/2026, and Asa will begin his 3-year term on 1/1/2027.

A discussion was held about the possible promotion of the Western Junior Livestock Show. The Western Junior Livestock Show is a youth show run by the South Dakota 4-H administration and includes classes for longhorn and longhorn cross market steers, longhorn and longhorn cross market heifers, longhorn and longhorn cross breeding heifers, and longhorn and longhorn cross breeding bulls. This discussion was tabled for a later time.

With no other new or old business, Shawn made a motion to adjourn, Gordon seconded, and all approved.

Shawn Tobin, President
Great Plains Texas Longhorn Association
